TEAM NOTES

Salisbury State...Only team among the tournament participants that has yet to play a game in '89...Sea Gulls feature a good blend of returnees and newcomers as SSU aims to improve 5-9-3 mark of 1988... SSU features six three-year lettermen...Salisbury defense averaged just 1.19 goals allowed per game last year...Sea Gulls closed out '88 season by out-scoring opponents 14-6 over final seven games.

Glassboro State...Profs begin play this weekend with a 2-0 record, having won the championship of their own Sunkist Kickoff Tournament last weekend...Glassboro defeated Spring Garden, 4-0, and North Carolina Wesleyan, 1-0, to capture the championship...Sunday's victory over Wesleyan was the 200th career win for Profs' head coach Dan Gilmore...Glassboro has won the New Jersey Athletic Conference (NJAC) championship for the past four years, and is seeking its eleventh NCAA Tournament bid in 1989.

Mary Washington...The Eagles are 1-1 on the young season, having split a pair of road games last week...Mary Washington beat Georgetown, 2-1, in the season opener, then dropped a 2-1 decision at Shenandoah... Co-captain Scott Karr and midfielder Tim Farrell, both projected starters, have yet to play this season due to injuries...Coming off their best season ever in 1988, when they finished 17-3 and advanced to the NCAA Tournament, the Eagles were ranked 13th in the ISAA preseason poll and 2nd in the South Region.

Randolph-Macon...The Yellow Jackets bring an 0-2 record to Salisbury, having dropped their season opener to UDC, 1-0, and having lost to Richmond, 3-0, on Tuesday...Randolph-Macon and Mary Washington are not only competing for this weekend's tournament championship, but also compete for the Virginia Intercollegiate Soccer Association (VISA) championship during the course of the season.
